THE 2nd AICONICS

Adab-International Conference on Information and Cultural Sciences

We welcome proposals for virtual paper presentations addressing one of the following themes: Current Development of Arabic Language and Literary Studies, Moderation of Islam in Indonesia, Library Studies in the Multicultural Society, and Rethinking Globalization in English Studies. Our special focus this year is Globalization and Humanities: Making Sense of Islamic Culture in the Contemporary World. This event is organized to provide a platform for academicians, researchers, and graduate students to present their new advances or research findings in the relevant area, not only to address the problems and challenges of globalization but also to propose solutions to the current issues. The paper submitted must be original and should have never been published elsewhere. The paper may be written either in English or Arabic.

BACKGROUND

Globalization creates both challenges and opportunities that must be addressed critically, objectively, and proportionally. Issues that arise with globalization vary from the current failures to respond to the global pandemic, humanitarian crisis, radicalism of the contemporary world, narrow scripturalist interpretation of Islam, the fast-paced technological change, to environmental crisis that may lead to mass extinction. These complex problems require deeper conceptual knowledge, cultural literacy, diverse perspectives and dynamic attitudes.

Humanities with its humanizing functions play an important role in providing a more nuanced understanding of cultures and civilization. Areas in the humanities such as language, literature, history, civilization, library and information sciences potentially contribute to promoting critical thinking and bringing new cultural perspectives. The diverse perspectives in the field of humanities may serve as the foundation to make sense of cultures in the contemporary globalization and to build a more civilized world.

Faculty of Adab and Cultural Sciences of UIN Sunan Kalijaga Yogyakarta is hosting the 2nd AICONICS 2020 to bring together

	academicians, researchers, practitioners, and graduate students to exchange information and share their research results related to the conference topics. Hopefully, the discussions on globalization and the humanities during this virtual international conference could offer meaningful critical reflections on the humanities as a field of study in the contemporary globalizing world. It is also hoped that this annual conference could build knowledge synergy of various fields in the Faculty of Adab and Cultural Sciences i.e. Islamic history, culture, and civilization, Arabic language and literature, English language and literature, and library and information sciences.
